

ARIS BABIKIAN

New Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Citizenship and Multiculturalism

"I am deeply honored and humbled by this appointment, and I want to thank Premier Ford for his trust and leadership in giving me the opportunity to serve in this role," said MPP Babikian.

"For years, I have been committed to advocating for the diverse communities that make Ontario so vibrant, and this new role allows me to further amplify those voices. I am eager to work with Minister Graham McGregor and continue our shared mission of strengthening Ontario's multicultural fabric and ensuring equal opportunities for all."

MPP Babikian has long been a champion for ethnic communities, supporting policies that address systemic challenges while promoting multiculturalism. With this new role, MPP Babikian is eager to continue building Ontario's proud history as a province that embraces and celebrates diversity.
